Toastmasters is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping members improve their communication and leadership skills. The foundation for Toastmasters is the regularly scheduled club meeting at which members have the opportunity to make prepared and impromptu speeches of various lengths and follow an educational program that enables members to build over 300 competencies based on five core principles: Public Speaking, Interpersonal Communication, Strategic Leadership, Management, and Confidence.

Since 1924, Toastmasters International has helped people from diverse backgrounds become more confident speakers, communicators, and leaders. The organization's current membership exceeds 357,000 in more than 16,600 clubs in 143 countries. District 83 serves over 4,000 members in central and northern New Jersey and Staten Island and Rockland County, NY.
